Curriculum Overview for Upper School Summer 2023

English

Writing & Reading

Derek Redmond – 'Things don't always work out the way you like': watching this inspirational sporting clip and then writing a blog of the event. Comparing this with other famous sporting stories.

Kensuke's Kingdom (Y5): a book study of the wonderful story created by Michael Morpugo: survival, friendships and making the right choices.

Art & Design

Willow Fish
Sculpting with willow to create 3D models then using collage skills to cover the frames.

Computing

We are Bloggers. Creating a text-based interactive game.

We are Network Technicians. Exploring Computer Networks including the Internet.

Mathematics

Statistics.

Recap of concepts covered earlier in the year.

Investigations and projects

Design & Technology
Suspension Bridges:
Wooden frames to support heavy loads

PSHE

Ongoing covering many areas of Personal, Social and Health wellbeing

This term includes Sex and Relationship Education

Modern Languages

French

Our School

Then and Now

Music

Learn to play Samba:

Each class will learn this for one term followed by a term of music sessions inspired by the theme

World Music

Science

Living Things and Their Habitats

Different habitats and biomes around the world. Investigating what will survive in each place.

Geography
Source to Sea

How does the river Meon change on its way to the Sea?

What can we learn through fieldwork?

How do rivers compare to one another?

Physical Education

Net Games

Striking and Fielding

Athletics

Religious Education

Justice

Stewardship

Wisdom